Training on how to share your faith will be offered by the Billy Graham Evangelistic Association in Tallahassee in preparation for the Will Graham event on October 26th. The faith sharing trainings will be held at Killearn Methodist Church on Thursday, September 11, 6-9 pm, and Saturday, September 13, 9 am-12 pm. You need to attend both trainings if you think you would like to be a prayer counselor at the event. The trainings are worthwhile, however, even if you won't be a prayer counselor because you will learn how to share your faith. Those attending the trainings can travel together in the church van. See Pastor Mark.

There are sign-up sheets at the entrance to the sanctuary for the two adult Bible studies starting in October. Please sign up so we can order books for you.

We still need someone to lead the class for elementary school aged children on Wednesday nights. A possibility is for multiple people to share responsibility by taking turns leading. Please see Pastor Mark.

Thank you, Tricia Carnell, for volunteering to enter the data for our new member directory. We still need a volunteer to take pictures of everyone. This doesn't require special photography skills. Being able to take photos with a smartphone is all that is required. You will just take photos of people after church on a couple Sundays and then transfer the photos into the directory program online. Please see Pastor Mark.

Remember to be reading through the Gospels this Fall. Don't worry if you didn't start on September 1st. This week the readings (starting with today) are Matthew 7-13.
